Amsterdam (Netherlands) – Elevion Group's recent acquisition on the Spanish renewables market, Reconcar (Revisiones Y Control De Cartagena S.L.), will now be renamed BELECTRIC España Construction. The Murcia-based company will be managed by BELECTRIC España, Member of Elevion Group.

Elevion Group announces that its subsidiary previously operating under the name Reconcar (Revisiones Y Control De Cartagena S.L.) will now be named BELECTRIC España Construction. Reconcar was acquired by Elevion Group in May 2025 with the aim of integrating the company into BELECTRIC España, who will now manage BELECTRIC España Construction.

Jaroslav Macek, CEO of Elevion Group, explains: "We know that the previous name is associated with a history of commitment, expertise, and pioneering spirit. All of that remains – and now becomes part of something bigger."

"With this new name, we are opening a new chapter together – one that combines the best of both worlds and reflects our shared future. The renaming is therefore more than just a formal step. It stands for team spirit, for building a shared identity – and for the conviction that we can achieve even more as one strong team", adds Dr Thorsten Blanke, CEO of BELECTRIC, member of Elevion Group.

The renaming takes effect immediately. All existing contracts and business relationships remain unaffected by this change.
